The Fundamentalism Project Ser.: Fundamentalisms Observed ...

Fundamentalism usually has a religious connotation that indicates unwavering attachment to a set of irreducible beliefs. However, fundamentalism has come to be applied to a tendency among certain groups – mainly, although not exclusively, in religion – that is characterized by a markedly strict literalism as it is applied to certain specific scriptures, dogmas, or ideologies, and a strong sense of the importance of maintaining ingroup and outgroup distinctions, leading to an emphasis on ...

Fundamentalism-An Enemy of the Common Good. BY: FR. GERALD A. ARBUCKLE, SM, PhD. Jon Lezinsky. Pope Francis said, "Fundamentalism is a sickness that is in all religions Religious fundamentalism is not religious, because it lacks God. It is idolatry, like idolatry of money We Catholics have some — and not some, many — who believe in the absolute truth and go ahead dirtying the other with calumny, with disinformation, and doing evil."

Fundamentalism: An Enemy of the Common Good

It is not unlike documentaries like "Jesus Camp," which came much later, but it does one seem to be very objective and lives up to its subtitle of "fundamentalisms observed." BJU practices what the narrator calls "separatist fundamentalism" even separating themselves from more well-known evangelical figures like Billy Graham and Moral Majority ...
