Shakespeare's queer children : sexual politics and ...

We may never know Shakespeare's own sexual identity, but it doesn't matter. His works, such as Twelfth Night, remind us that identity itself is relative. If music be the food of love - that is to say, gay love, straight love, queer love, trans love - play on.

A Queer reading of Twelfth Night - The British Library

Having established my reputation as a Shakespeare scholar (Shakespeare's Queer Children: Sexual Politics and Contemporary Culture, 1996), I have increasingly focused on women's cultural production across a range of modes and genres, with a strong emphasis on bringing intersectional feminist methods and approaches into dialogue with historicised, and frequently archive-based scholarship ...
