The Chesapeake Shores novels are known for humor, strong family support, strong, independent women, and Mick's outrageous attempts to control his family. The Christmas Bouquet is one more enchanting story in the series. There are few surprises. It falls under Woods' formula for these books.

The Christmas Bouquet (Chesapeake Shores, #11) by Sherryl ...

Finished the Christmas Bouquet and it didn't disappoint. This family story reveals how truly supportive the O'Briens are. Love the setting of Chesapeake Shores and the way Sherryl brings it to life with her descriptions. You can imagine the town green, row of shops in town; the bookstore, flower shop, cafes, candy store, Noah's office, etc.
